LOCK HAVEN - Join your neighbors and friends in an engaging evening discussing new and ongoing park and recreation plans.

Learn more about the place you call home and to help direct its future as a Susquehanna Greenway "River Town."

The City of Lock Haven, the Susquehanna Greenway Partnership, Lock Haven University and others will hold a public forum this coming Thursday in LHU's Durrwachter Alumni Conference Center.

The evening will begin with an open house in the main lobby of the Durrwachter center starting at 6 p.m., when several ongoing and future park and recreation plans will be on display for public comment.

A few short presentations will open the public forum at 6:30 p.m., including opening remarks by Lock Haven University President Dr. Michael Fiorentino Jr. and a presentation by Lock Haven Mayor Rick Vilello.

A focus group activity will follow in which all meeting participants will be divided into several groups. Each group will be asked various questions about the community and report back to the group as whole.

Questions about the event can be directed to Zach Pyle, SGP River Towns coordinator, at 570-522-7339 or email at zpyle@susquehannagreenway.org.
