

Susquehanna Sojourn paddles along

The North Branch Susquehanna Sojourn makes its way toward Columbia Park in South Centre Township, above, Friday afternoon. The three-day trek ends Sunday in Northumberland at the Priestley House museum. The flotilla of kayaks and canoes departed Friday from Hunlock Creek before ending for the day in Columbia Park. Today, they will begin at the park and paddle to Danville.

Kayakers, left, exit the Susquehanna River at Columbia Park.

PHOTOS BY M.J. MAHON