Museums and Historical Sites

A Wyoming County Historical Society, Museum and Genealogical Library – 570-836-5303 – Research materials including newspapers and census records of Wyoming and surrounding counties from 1790 to 1930. The Historical Museum also includes Indian artifacts as well as numerous items from the Civil War and World Wars I & II.
www.pawchs.org – R3 on Tunkhannock street map

B Noxen Depot – Restored 1893 railway station
Former Lehigh Valley Railroad Depot, along state Route 3002 (Stull Road) and Bowman's Creek, Noxen was built to serve the timber and ice industry of North Mountain, and a local tannery. It was abandoned in 1963 when rail service ended.

C The Oldest House in Laceyville – Built in 1771, this wood framed house was built on the Old North Branch Canal and was a place where passengers could grab a cool drink or stock up on supplies for the rest of their journey. Open for tours and events, spring through fall.

D Tunkhannock Viaduct/Nicholson Bridge – 2,375 ft long viaduct – The concrete deck arch bridge that spans the Tunkhannock Creek in Nicholson can be viewed from Rt. 11 or Rt. 92. Completed in 1915, it is the largest poured concrete railroad bridge in the world.

Martins Creek Viaduct/Kingsley Bridge – Similar in design to the Nicholson Bridge – Concrete arch bridge over Martins Creek and Lackawanna Trail on Canadian Pacific Railroad, total length: 1,600 ft. On US Rt. 11, north of Nicholson.

Parks, Trails and River Access

E Howland Preserve – North Branch Land Trust is a 669-acre property along the Susquehanna River adjacent to Camp Lackawanna. Features include riverside parking area, non-motorized boat launch, picnic area at the river and hiking trails. Open from sunrise to sunset.
www.nblt.org/lands-we-own/howland-preserve

F Camp Lackawanna – 570-348-6043
A youth camp and retreat center for adults and families. Rental facilities include: large and small lodge, small cabins, large picnic pavilion with BBQ pit and group camping site. Call for rental information. www.emnconline.org

Endless Mountains Nature Center at Camp Lackawanna
Vosburg Neck Road – Hiking and river access, over 8 miles of marked trails. All visitors to Camp Lackawanna's grounds MUST sign in and out. www.emnconline.org

G Tunkhannock Riverside Park – Tunkhannock, River Street, off of Route 29 South • Picnic tables, fishing, boat access, playground, outdoor ice rink and basketball courts

H Road Side Rest Stop – Route 29 South, Bowmans Creek
Swimming, fishing and picnic area

I Iroquois Trail – Tunkhannock • This 1.8 mile trail for hiking and biking is a smooth gravel trail through the woods with benches at the start and the end. The trail begins at the Tunkhannock ballpark off of Sunnyside Road. Parking located at the ballpark or further east on Sunnyside Road.

J Lazybrook Park – On Route 6 east of Tunkhannock • Pavilion, sports field, trails, handicap accessible, fishing and playground

K Little Rocky Glen Trail – Small in size, but big on beauty. This preserve is owned and protected by the Countryside Conservancy and encompasses a shale and sandstone gorge, about one hundred feet deep, carved by the South Branch Tunkhannock Creek. There are trails around the creek and to cliffs overlooking the glen and down to a field with a picnic pavilion next to the creek. Located off of US 6, along Lithia Valley Road.

L Keystone College – Woodlands Campus Trails
The 170-acre Woodlands campus complex at Keystone College contains roughly 7 miles of hiking trails. The trails are open seven days a week from dawn until dusk. Reserved for foot traffic only. Bikes, ATVs and horses are strictly prohibited.
www.keystone.edu/woodlands/index.dot

Bicycle PA Y-Route – Route Y runs from the Ohio border at the Pymatuning Lake in Crawford County east to the New York border at the Delaware River in Lackawaxen, Pike County. The bike route roughly follows US Route 6. Information:
www.pahighways.com/other/bicyclepa.html

Seneca Trail – A six-mile walking and cycling trail that uses several segments of Eaton Township paved roads and portions of Pennsylvania Route 29. The trail passes sections of Bowman Creek and through Eatonville. The Trail's southern end is on Jenks Road at the Eaton/Monroe Township border and the northern end is Riverside Park in Tunkhannock.
Information: 570-836-3725

The Wyoming County Cultural Center at the Dietrich Theater

The Dietrich Theater is a non-profit movie theater that uses its film revenue to support cultural and educational programming.

The Dietrich features blockbuster and independent films, stage performances, art exhibits, and art classes for both adults and children. In June 2009, the theater expanded and opened two new theaters, now providing a total of four theaters. Currently the Dietrich Theater at the Wyoming County Cultural Center serves as the leading cultural and educational center for Wyoming County providing the community with music, theater, visual arts, crafts, media arts, folk arts, humanities, multidisciplinary arts, science, nature, and health and wellness programming.

To find out more about the Dietrich Theater, check the website www.dietrichtheater.com or call 570-836-1022.

Endless Mountains Heritage Region (EMHR)

EMHR was created in 1998 as a non-profit agency with the Heritage Area Program of the Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources.

EMHR's mission is to maintain, enhance and help support the unique rural character, culture and history of the Endless Mountains area.

EMHR serves as the designated water trail manager of the Susquehanna River North Branch Water Trail, a National Recreation Trail of the National Park Service. The agency provides water trail maps and information, paddler orientation and wayfinding signage, and helps guide development of river access areas, riverside parks and related waterway amenities.

EMHR serves as the sponsor for the Northern Tier Buy Fresh Buy Local Program, a chapter of FoodRoutes Network LLC, subsidiary of the Pennsylvania Association for Sustainable Agriculture. The program's goal is to make it easier for Pennsylvania consumers to find, choose, and appreciate local foods, and support farmers and farmland retention.

Call EMHR at 570-265-1528 for more information about how you can help preserve our heritage.
